When's the last time you attended a class? If it's been a few years, you might appreciate The Great Courses, a sort of "Netflix for learning." The Great Courses offers a few hundred adult-level courses in categories as varied as economics, food and wine, science, literature, fine arts and travel. Every course has high video production quality, often with computer graphics and animations to help explain the lecture, delivered by an expert in the field. Usually, The Great Courses offers a 14-day trial before the subscription kicks in. But right now we've got an exclusive deal for Cheapskates readers. You can get a 30-day free trial to The Great Courses, but only if you use the button below (or, if you want to be pedantic, the link earlier in this sentence). If you go to the site any other way, you get the standard 14-day trial.

EASTER SERVICES

Dear People of God at Christ Church,

We warmly invite you to join in our upcoming Holy Week services. Even in this time of shelter-in-place, we can worship together online during this most significant week of the Christian year.

On Good Friday, our service will include the solemn prayers of day and a moving reading of the Passion of the Gospel interspersed with music from our Christ Church soloists (from their own homes, of course). Join us on Friday, 10 April at 12 noon for that service.

For the Easter Vigil on Saturday and Easter Sunday service, we invite you to join with fellow Episcopalians from around the diocese in celebrating with Grace Cathedral via their livestream: 9 PM on Saturday, and 11 AM on Sunday.

The links for all the services are available on our church website. Just look for the calendar in the middle of the page; the links for each service will be available by clicking on the day for each service. Our website can be found by clicking HERE.*

*Peace in Christ,
