

Happy Saturday, Villagers

More to enjoy from the California Film Institute \(CFI\)— at the movies at home!

As we continue to shelter in place, CFI programmers have been contemplating how people engage with situations outside the ordinary, our relationship with the environment, and how we connect in disconnected circumstances. With that in mind, we continue our screening series with Mill Valley Film Festival Programming Manager Sterling Hedgpeth's selections, For All Mankind and God's Own Country, and Mill Valley Film Festival Programming Associate Celeste Wong's selection, Leave No Trace. These are films about people in unusual situations, who find a new way to connect via the natural world.

A couple weeks ago the Greek government announced that our quarantine would continue “well beyond April 6th,” the original date for which it had been set. We knew this was coming, but it was still hard to hear. And it was this same moment that my memories as a long-distance runner came flooding back.

A screenshot of a YouTube video player. The video is paused, showing a large red play button in the center. The background of the video is dark, with some faint text visible at the bottom, including "A son" and "uhan". The top of the player shows a status bar with "vodafone UK", "09:37", and "97%".

A timely – and fun and clever – twist to the Sound of Music:

EASTER SERVICES

*Dear People of God at Christ Church,

We warmly invite you to join in our upcoming Holy Week services. Even in this time of shelter-in-place, we can worship together online during this most significant week of the Christian year.

On Good Friday, our service will include the solemn prayers of day and a moving reading of the Passion of the Gospel interspersed with music from our Christ Church soloists (from their own homes, of course). Join us on Friday, 10 April at 12 noon for that service.

For the Easter Vigil on Saturday and Easter Sunday service, we invite you to join with fellow Episcopalians from around the diocese in celebrating with Grace Cathedral via their livestream: 9 PM on Saturday, and 11 AM on Sunday.

The links for all the services are available on our church website. Just look for the calendar in the middle of the page; the links for each service will be available by clicking on the day for each service. Our website can be found by clicking HERE.*

Please contact us if your church is providing virtual Easter services.

On the verge of Holy Week

Meanwhile a new paradigm is composing itself in our minds, Could birth at any moment if we clear some space From the same tired hegemonies. Remember, you are allowed to be still as the white birch, Stunned by what you see, Uselessly shedding your coils of paper skins Because it gives you something to do.
