Responding to a Global Threat: Entangled Whales

Live Virtual Program

1pm PT

How do you free a 25-foot humpback whale trapped in fishing gear? Find out during this moderated panel discussion as our marine mammal response experts share stories from the field and demonstrate the specialized techniques developed to rescue these animals. You'll also hear about our work preventing future entanglements and training others to respond to this growing threat. And you'll be invited to ask your own questions during this interactive live event.

Speakers:

- Global Response Project Manager Kathi George
- Response Training & Operations Manager Dave Zahniser
- Associate Director of Conservation Education Adam Ratner (moderator)

This Marine Science Series event will be broadcast live on The Marine Mammal Center's Facebook page. You do not need a Facebook account to watch the live broadcast. Just visit the Center's Facebook page by clicking this link.

5 Unbelievable U.S. Train Routes

The 1879 gold rush birthed the necessity for industrial transportation capable of hauling mounds of precious metal out of California — thus the Denver and Rio Grande Railway. It didn't take long for passengers to spread word that gold wasn't the only precious thing about this railway. Spectacular views of Colorado's luscious peaks and rivers ensured that the train stayed in operation long after the gold veins ran dry. The Durango & Silverton Narrow Gorge route features steep drop-offs that are so awe-inspiring they have served as a muse to multiple artists, including C.W. McCall, who dedicated an entire song to the Silverton.

"Well now listen to the whistle in the rockwood cut on the high line to Silverton Town

Written by Carolyn Johnson in 2009

"Amidst the struggle, beauty emerged. The lilies bloomed magnificent and fragrant in the garden, the children laughed and played.
We strengthened ourselves to uncertainty. We chose consciousness over denial, passion over anger, connection over separation. A new understanding of life was born from the remnants of the old. A pathway of possibilities emerged--renewable energy, solar and wind power, green building, rooftop gardens, community. We began again..."

These portraits of insects aren't actually insects at all

Using flowers, leaves, twigs, and seeds, Canadian artist Raku Inoue creates intricate portraits of insects.

TROPICAL PLANTS AREN'T abundant in the northern latitudes of Montreal, Canada. Nor are the planet's most diverse animals, insects. Even so, Montreal-based artist and photographer Raku Inoue finds a way to showcase both with his colorful portraits of insects and other animals made from flowers, leaves, twigs, seeds, and stems.

In excitement for our Online "Terroir" Wine Tasting (see below), listen to a celebratory moment from Don Giovanni. Awaiting the wedding party of Masetto and Zerlina in Act I, this great seducer declares - in a tongue-twisting aria - that there shall be an incredible party with much wine and many women. Often called "The Champagne Aria" (though who knows why since only "wine" is mentioned), "Fin ch'han dal vino" is one of Mozart's shortest arias, at just under two minutes.

Virtual Rec Room

*Welcome to Sausalito's Parks and Recreation Virtual Rec Room. Each day we will be featuring new content from our many instructors, Parks and Recreation Team, and from the web.
