Chain Reaction: Securing Our Future: Monday, June 8, 5 pm

You're invited to Ploughshares Fund's annual gala, Chain Reaction. Registration is free.

The global COVID-19 pandemic has made clear the need to reprioritize the policies that keep our citizens safe. We will examine threats to our global community — nuclear weapons, climate change, and now pandemics — with some of the top experts and political leaders in the nation. We will explore trends and transitions in national security and challenge the politics of US foreign policy and government budgets. Nancy Pelosi will be the opening speaker!

In 1896, on a visit to the Egyptian city of Luxor, Camille Saint-Saëns (1835-with "a duet of undulating scales between orchestra and soloist; the texture sparkles irresistibly and evokes a relaxed oceanside. Throughout staggeringly virtuosic writing for the pianist, Saint- Saëns transforms and reimagines his original material and employs a wide palate of orchestral colors. The second movement, with its...driving rhythmic accompaniment, is perhaps the most 'Egyptian' of the three movements. The soloist must call upon a dramatic and expressive sensibility in...passages meant to evoke the music of North Africa and Spain. The bustling, extroverted finale was described by one early critic as a welcome end to exotic travel: a 'gay little march tune' suggesting 'a happy return to Paris boulevards.'" Pianist Jean-Yves Thibaudet and Amsterdam's Royal Concertgebouw Orchestra, conducted by Andris Nelsons.

World Oceans Day Celebrations

Monday June 8, 2020

San Francisco's Exploratorium, honoring the ocean.

World Oceans Day is a global movement to celebrate, protect, and preserve Earth's life support system. Join us for discussions and films that explore the sights and sounds of the sea, from the lapping shoreline of San Francisco Bay to the call of a deep-diving whale off of the Pacific Coast to kelp forests and spawning herrings.

And a soundscape journey from the estuaries of San Francisco, through the Golden Gate, into kelp forests of the Northern California Coast, and down deep into Monterey Bay Canyon.

Monday June 8. 1pm PDT for the kids, 7pm PDT for the rest of us.
