American musician, singer-songwriter, record producer, and multi-instrumentalist, Stevland Hardaway Judkins, known better by his stage name Stevie Wonder, has become "one of the most creative and loved musical performers of the late 20th century....He has recorded more than 30 U.S. Top-10 hits and received 22 Grammy Awards, the most ever awarded to a male solo artist, and has sold over 100 million albums and singles." In 2008, Wonder was named a "United Nation's Messenger of Peace." Among other accolades, Wonder placed at #5 on Billboard's Hot-100 list of "All Time Greatest Artists." 1982 saw Wonder's collaboration with Paul McCartney to make a plea for racial harmony (still timely today, no?), resulting in one of the biggest hits in either artist's distinguished career.
