Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) the "original father of harmony," and, as many say, "the father of classical music" created over 1,100 works; his unparalleled output includes about every musical genre outside of opera. One of his most popular works transcribed for strings by August Wilhelmj, which made it a party piece playable on only one string of a violin - hence its nickname 'Air on the G string' (I, James, didn't make that up. I swear!). It's led scholars to believe the whole suite might have been composed for strings only, which would make it Bach's only known work written solely for four-part strings." Listen to "Air" played by the Academy of Ancient Music conducted by harpsichordist Peter Whelan.

The Gabrielson Park Rose Garden

The Rose Garden in Gabrielson Park is looking beautiful! Please stroll by on your next walk through downtown Sausalito and have a look! It will bring you joy.

The original garden was established in 1961. It has been maintained over the years by members of the Sausalito Woman's Club (SWC.) In the last decade, Wera Musaus has led the SWC volunteers. In 2015, it was decided to concentrate on roses — and those flowers have blossomed with gratifying generosity. This year's blooms are spectacular! It is hoped that all Sausalito Villagers will don a mask, stroll gently by the garden and pause a moment.

A new and different section was added to the SWC's area of responsibility just last year. It is a blooming garden which parallels the road to the Spinnaker. This smaller garden includes Daisies and Marguerites. It was planned to complement the roses and bloom at varying times throughout the year.

Wera hopes that in the midst of this health epidemic and civic unrest you will find comfort in visiting Gabrielson Park. Please rejoice in the beauty of nature and our good fortune in living in Sausalito with its very-special Rose Garden.
