Please join us this Labor Day Weekend as we adhere to the restrictions of a COVID-19 environment, while keeping our commitment to the arts alive!

Kicking off the Festival on September 7, will be The Heart of San Francisco, a grand artistic production by Antenna Theater that will transform the Bay Area into a giant theatrical amphitheater. This COVID-free, multidisciplinary theatrical production will include planes, drones, boats and windsurfers and can be seen throughout the Bay Area. It will also be live-streamed throughout the world. The event will culminate with a mile-high heart drawn over the Golden Gate Bridge.

The Festival will conclude with an Online Silent Auction September 10-12, featuring artistic works from artists who have previously exhibited live at the Sausalito Art Festival. It's your opportunity to visit your favorite artists from the safety of your home.

Now in its 68th year, the Sausalito Art Festival refuses to be stopped by COVID-19 and we hope you will join us "virtually" this year to help keep the creative spirit alive.

Take a break from the craziness and stress of our world on a journey of charming, funny, even downright hilarious scenes from works of the Baroque period through the centuries to Modern opera. Operas are stereotyped as being full of high drama and tragedy. (Actually, all of that is caused by the singers backstage!) With video performance clips bringing the excitement and beauty of opera into our class, JAMES SOKOL will share some of the wonderful comic moments throughout the history of opera. This is a great class for both the opera newcomer and the long-time fan.
