Sausalito Village unveiled a new monthly program called Village Movie Group hosted by Paul Mowry and Joe Silverman. Like a Book Group, attendees will have all watched the same film and come prepared to the event to discuss it. (Fun Fact: Did you know Paul and Joey met decades working in film in NYC and are HUGE film buffs?)

At our next Movie Group on Wednesday, September 2, at 4pm, join us for a

Rent here for $3.99: Amazon

If this is not possible for you to do, contact sausalitovillagersvp@gmail.com and we will make the film available to watch on Zoom at 2pm on September 2 prior to the discussion.

MVFF43 | October 8-18

The 43rd Mill Valley Film Festival is coming and it will be unlike anything we've presented before. The eleven-day Festival taking place October 8 - 18 will boast the year's best films from all corners of the globe, presented in our online virtual screening room and at our own studio-grade drive-in cinema located at the beautiful Lagoon Park at the Marin County Civic Center!

Next week we will kick off the Mill Valley Film Festival's 2020 Contenders Season with the World Premiere of All In: The Fight for Democracy, featuring politician and voting rights activist Stacey Abrams, as well as our first-ever Active Cinema Spotlight Award Presentation for filmmakers Lisa Cortés and Liz Garbus. Keep an eye on your inbox for your invitation to this program and be sure to reserve your spot to this free drive-in screening by Monday, August 31st, as parking space will be limited and we anticipate this program will be very popular!

1. The Car Heater

Inventions by Women

We all owe our thanks to Margaret A Wilcox who invented the car heater in 1893!

(Margaret also invented a combined clothes and dishwasher)
