Sausalito Beautiful Survey

We hope that 2020 has given you time to pause, slow down, and appreciate the natural beauty of our public green spaces.

Sausalito Beautiful would benefit from your thoughts through an online survey. Five years ago, your input shaped our founding and now it's time to take the pulse of the community again. Please take a few minutes to give us your thoughts.

For 20 years, Nelson Mendonca cycled in and out of prison struggling with drug addiction. But one day, while incarcerated in British Columbia, Canada, he picked up something that would change his life: a knitting tool called a loom hook. He took to it immediately (crafters, you know that feeling), and started knitting hats for the homeless. When he got out of prison, he joined a recovery program at the Phoenix Society, an addiction services center, and now leads a knitting circle with about 10 other men from the facility. Besides providing a creative outlet and lots of extremely wholesome guy time, Mendonca says knitting can teach a lot of life lessons. "It's the one thing in my life I can't cheat, manipulate, cut corners, or find a loophole," he says. "You just have to follow every step, one at a time over and over again." So far, the group has knitted more than 200 warm winter hats that are distributed to people in need.
